Title: Auburn ‘Dreamer’ fights for DACA in Washington, D.C.

Publication Date: January 12, 2018

Summary: Tomas Evangelista is co-founder of the Placer County organization California Dreamers, advocating for a path to legal citizenship for DACA recipients like himself.

"When I was transferring over from American River College to Cal State Stanislaus, the financial aid wasn't available for me. My community stepped up and there were 10 individual, some who knew me and some who didn't, that pulled their money together," Evangelista said. "Auburn is an amazing community. Placer County is very loving. And this state is very caring."
