LOS RIOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT RECEIVES $1.375 MILLION GIFT FROM LOCAL RESIDENT

Sacramento—The Los Rios Community College Foundation recently learned that Sacramento resident Hulda Mae Stone, who passed away last year, bequeathed $1.375 million to the foundation.

“This is the largest gift by an individual that our foundation has ever received,” said Los Rios Foundation chairman, Robert Walker.

Stone specified the money be used to fund endowed scholarships and grants for needy students at Sacramento City College.

“We are so appreciative of this generous gift and know it will go a long way to helping so many students over the years at Sacramento City College,” said Los Rios chancellor Brice Harris.

Hulda Mae Stone was a long-time resident of Sacramento and a 1936 graduate of Stanford University.

The Los Rios Foundation raises money to support student success through a variety of programs.

The Los Rios Community College District enrolls nearly 85,000 students at its four colleges—American River, Cosumnes River, Folsom Lake, and Sacramento City.
