Los Rios Community College District

The Los Rios Community College District's four colleges serve the greater Sacramento region. With a student population of nearly 90,000, and a service area of 2,400 square miles, the district is the second largest in California and is one of the top statewide in transferring students to the UC and CSU systems. In addition, the district provides 76 two-year vocational programs and 63 technical certificate programs.

Los Rios gives a voice to all

Los Rios is widely recognized as the single largest provider of critical workforce training for the Sacramento region. Its wide range of employment opportunities include teaching, counseling, administrative work, information technology, research, campus policing, facilities maintenance and planning. The 3,500 employees across the district do work that they love because they know they make a difference in the lives of students and in the economic and social health of the community. Los Rios is known for fiscal stability and excellence in financial management, helping to ensure job security and financial soundness for our employees. Los Rios is a non-smoking campus.
